

Electoral Review of East Cambridgeshire

The independent Local Government Boundary Commission for England is carrying out an electoral review of East Cambridgeshire District Council.

The review will draw new council ward boundaries across East Cambridgeshire.

The Commission has also announced that 27 councillors should be elected to the council in future: 12 fewer than the current arrangements.

Now we are asking for evidence about your local area to help us decide a new pattern of wards for East Cambridgeshire District Council.

Your views will make a difference

Local people know their area best. That's why we are asking you for evidence on a range of issues:

- Do you have suggestions about where your ward boundaries should be?
- Which areas do you identify as your local community?
- Where do people in your area go to access local facilities such as shops and leisure activities?
