

Haddenham Parish Council

Communications Group

Background

On 10th June 2015, the Council agreed to form a Communications Group in order to improve the level of understanding by the public of what the Council does, its relationships with other levels of Local Government, and the background to its decision-making.

The Group will be formed by a nucleus of Council Members, augmented by interested members of the public, and will meet periodically to achieve set objectives.

Terms of Reference

The Group shall concern itself with the promotion of good practice with respect to communications between the Council and the public.

It shall develop both policy and detail in the area of protocol for public communications.

It shall make recommendations to Council regarding website format and content, as well as other interactivity mechanisms, such as social media.

The Group shall meet on an ad-hoc basis and shall report back on progress.

Reviewed and readopted on 16th July 2018.
